. . . .The hallowed halls. Sound of footsteps, hurrying. Ivy. Voices with a ring and answered questions. White columns, tall and straight against old brick. Snow and sunlight. And, memories.

. . . . . That necessary ontside help, with a smile. Microscopes, dictionaries, tuning forks, hockey sticks, and even a whistle. Black robes and four cornered hats down a long aisle, while we stand. Passing out blue books, then leaving. Horn-rimmed glasses, humor, a cheerful greeting. Bnt best of all, friends.

Dedication...

He is known for his quick wit and appropriate epigrams on every occasion. Behind the laugh there is a solemn wisdom and an agile mind; behind the analytic disposition there is a deep sympathy and concern for others.

He challenges others, directly and indirectly, to use their minds more fully. He leads us to an emotional and intellectual understanding of God.

We are proud of him as teacher, friend and minister, and we wish to indicate this pride by dedicating the 1955 edition of the BLUESTOCKING to Dr. Thomas H. Grafton.

The members of the Junior class are traditionally responsible for certain activities on campus. At the beginning of this year the Junior class sponsored an informal dance for their sister class, the Freshmen. Later in the year, class rings were ordered and received following the Christmas holidays. "Little House", the residence of the Junior class president, was the scene of a small party given for the benefit of the entire Junior class. As usual, this year the class produced the BLUESTOCKING, and also presented the Junior-Senior banquet. To its achievements the class of 1956 added another project: They repeated the Jane Dieckmann Polio Fund Drive, which was begun in 1954.

The Student Government Association

Student government at Mary Baldwin College is a tradition of twenty-six years' standing. The privilege and responsibility of self-government is re-granted each year to the Student Government Association and, in the signing of the pledge, to the individual student, on Charter Night, early in the session. By this act of pledging herself, the student becomes a part of a society of self-discipline that encompasses every phase of her life at Mary Baldwin. The Student Council, the overall co-ordinating body for such a society, has representatives drawn from each class and the day students, presidents of the two largest campus organizations: the YWCA and the Recreation Association. Committees under its jurisdiction include Big Sisters, Cabin, Club, Nook, Social committees, and the Board of Review.

The most recent committee affiliated with the Council is of broader scope than our domestic government itself. This committee was established to utilize the membership which our government holds in the United States National Student Association. Through the proper channeling of material afforded by this organization for many clubs and campus groups, participation in various conferences from which pertinent information can be absorbed, and initiation of programs by foreign students, the student horizon has been broadened and interest awakened concerning the student world as a whole.

Each new generation of students at Mary Baldwin receives a heritage of a co-operative community based on those ideals which furnish life with meaning. Each generation in the process of squaring personal ideas with the traditional standards of the college society, modifies and gives personality to abstract principles. In this way, our society is not a static one, but an organic way of life. The unique interpretation by each student generation produces a warmly human community of interacting individuals. It is this which causes all thinking students, involved in problems of current interest, to look beyond to the continued discovery of the many values inherent in the ideals, the form of government at Mary Baldwin.

BOARD OF REVIEW

The Board of Review is a Student Government Organization composed of four student members appointed by the Student Council and three faculty members; the Sophomore Representative on the Student Council, who acts as Secretary of the Board, and the Dean of Students are members ex officio. The duties of this Board are: to check on the proper functioning of clubs, to approve new organizations, to approve money-making projects of campus organizations, and to schedule Friday assembly programs.

BIG SISTERS

The upperclassmen who served as the "Big Sisters" to the one hundred and fifty freshmen took part in one of the most important jobs on campus — helping the freshmen orient themselves to campus life. The duty of the "Big Sisters" is to help the freshmen adjust themselves to the life of the college community, and to be a friend and confidant.

Committees

SOCIAL COMMITTEE

The Social Committee is responsible for a large portion of the social calendar at Mary Baldwin. All classes are represented on this committee whose chairman is elected by the student body. Their first responsibility is usually off campus—that of introducing our freshmen at rush parties at the neighboring men's colleges. During the year, informal parties, receptions, and coffees are planned for plays and concerts. For many of us, these are bright spots in a busy week. Formal dances—the Winter and Spring dances—are always remembered with enjoyment by the students as highlights among the social activities.

EXECUTIVE COMMITTEE

Standing Left to Right: Nancy Buston, Ann Kennedy.

The Executive Committee is a Student Government Organization composed of the six members of the Advisory Board and four student members. The students are the President of the Student Council and other Council members appointed by her. The duties of this group are: to consider and decide all matters referred to it by the Student Council, to study all matters relating to the constitution, by-laws, and regulations of the Student Government Association, to make suggestions for changes in the regulations to the Student Council, and to prepare and assist in editing the Handbook before the school year ends.

The Nook, in the King Building, is our "campus kitchen". The students use it to test their talent for cooking. The Committee is responsible for seeing that it is clean and that the necessary kitchenware is on hand. This year, with the donations collected at the beginning of the year, the Nook has been better equipped.

The Cabin Committee this year was necessarily very large: Chip Inn was in need of numerous repairs. A new roof, water and plumbing systems made the cabin usable again. Numerous groups enjoyed it late in the year. The Sophomore Class assumed the chief responsibility for financing repairs.

Committees

CLUB COMMITTEE

The Club is a favorite meeting place for students as well as faculty. The ten minute breaks between classes and mail calls are exceptionally popular times there. Not only is the club a place to "get away from it all", but it also provides a nice setting for teas and receptions. The TV and Juke Box furnish good entertainment for dates, too. The friendly smiles of Maud and Margaret cannot help but to brighten a day.

NATIONAL STUDENT ASSOCIATION

In order to implement our membership in USNSA, a committee was established this year for the purpose of interpreting the NSA aims and the practical distribution of pertinent material.

The USNSA, whose program is three-fold, is an organization of college student bodies, represented through their student governments, as a voice on non-partisan political matters pertinent to students, and also as a national voice for American students abroad, helping to create a better international student understanding and telling the story of the United States to offset Communist propaganda.

On campus, this committee has narrowed these general aims to campus level activities which have led us to understand more fully what NSA really is and does.

The Young Women's Christian Association

MARGARET NEEL QUERY
President

The Y. W. C. A. derives its uniqueness as a campus organization from the composition of its membership. The student Christian association, which on our campus is affiliated with the National Student Y. W. C. A., includes those people who belong to the student world and are a part of that group which endeavors, at least in some small measure, to search for the truth in their times and to gain from their discovery a clearer concept of the purpose and meaning of life and of their own lives in the total scheme of life. But this is not all. The "Y" member also participates in another world, the Christian world, and feels herself a part of its past tradition and its present situation, as well as a responsible party in its future continuance and strength.

Persons who belong to both of these worlds and who are seeking to integrate them in their own lives — to realize their scholarship as a true Christian vocation, to place the objective and factual knowledge of sociology and history and biology into a framework of thought that finds its roots in the fundamental truths of Christianity — are the persons for whom membership in the student Christian association is intended and for such people as these it is meaningful.

Because we, who are members of the "Y", feel that Christian students have a need in their lives for worship, for study from the Christian perspective, and for action which is motivated by their concern for their fellows, the "Y" attempts to serve as a channel for this three-fold program of worship, study, and action. It endeavors to offer to those girls who want it an opportunity to exercise their Christian privileges and responsibilities in a group of like-minded people. And by doing this, to create a community of people who find the meaning of Christian fellowship in their association with others who have united

> "In the desire to realize full and creative life through a growing knowledge of God, to have a part in making this life possible for all people, and to understand Jesus and to follow Him."

Membership in the Day Student Club is open to all students registered as day students. The club encourages individual and group activities in all college activities.

Several projects have been carried out by the club during this year. Among these were the annual sale of Easter lilies and the presentation of a Thanksgiving basket to a needy family.

BETA BETA BETA

President ..... Helen Grover

The Alpha Pi Chapter members of Beta Beta Beta traveled various places this year while furthering their interests in biology. Besides attending Sigma Zi lectures at the University of Virginia, and an Audubon Lecture-movie at Bridgewater College, they made an excursion to a snake and tropical animal farm. The out-of-doors held its usual fall and spring attractions for them whenever they went on field trips. To stimulate interest in biology on campus, the chapter made available to the student body unusual technicolor films of land and water birds. They also began a project to replace the street lamp between the Biology Building and Riddle Dormitory. To further stimulate individual participation each member was responsible for reporting to the group a bit of research of her own.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

President ..... Jean Breeden
Vice-President ..... Betty Boyer
Treasurer ..... Judy Gallup
Secretary ..... Brigette Lederlin

The purpose of the "Cercle Francais" is to broaden the students' knowledge of the French language and the culture of France. It provides the opportunity for the student to take part in programs, skits, discussions, and French celebrations. Through these activities a more genuine interest of the French language is obtained. Brigette Lederlin, a student from France, helped the club members to gain a clearer understanding of France and French customs.

HUAPANGO

President ..... Peggy Jorstad
Vice-President ..... Betsy Towler
Secretary-Treasurer..Cecily Schwartz
Publicity Chairman....Barbara Bell
Advisor ..... Magdalena Garcia

"Huapango," the Spanish Club, has as its purpose the stimulation of the deeper understanding of and appreciation of the Spanish language, literature, and customs.

Meetings are designed to let the members carry out the purpose of the club by actual participation through conversation, songs and games.

In April the club presented "Tourists' View of Mexico" as a chapel program. The audience experienced the highlights of a tour through Mexico, including the breaking of a 'pinata.

Through the influence of Magdalena Garcia, club advisor, many girls have been inspired to further their interests in the Spanish language and culture.

In the spring, a joint concert with V. M. I. was presented. The group also made a return trip to the National Cathedral in Washington. The members of the Glee Club are selected from the Student Body in a series of try-outs held at the beginning of the school year.

ORGAN GUILD

CHAPEL CHOIR

Under the direction of Mr. Gordon Page, the Chapel Choir is one of the most active musical groups on the Mary Baldwin campus. Aside from being an important part of our Chapel Services, the choir sings at special services during the year, and each spring makes a tour through several of the Southern States. Nancy Buston accompanies the Choir.

Honors

Algernon Sydney Sullivan Award

The New York Southern Society and Mary Baldwin College have jointly arranged for the presentation of two medallions at Commencement each year to those who, because of the quality of their lives, are judged to be appropriate recipients of the award. While the award recognizes accomplishment, unselfish service is the fundamental principle, as this was the keynote of the life of Algernon Sydney Sullivan, whose name the award bears.

Usually one medallion is presented to a member of the graduating class and one to some other person who has interest in and association with the College.

At the 1954 Commencement Exercises the awards were presented to:

DR. F. L. BROWN

University of Virginia

"He has ever been alert to the material needs of Mary Baldwin, and willing to give time and go to endless trouble to make our campus a place where we would delight to live and work. He has not only been faithful and efficient, but has also communicated to us the spirit of service which he brings from his missionary heritage. Because of his unselfish character and his ministry to us as a member of the Board of Trustees, the faculty awards the Algernon Sydney Sullivan medallion with gratitude and affection to Doctor Frederick Lyons Brown."

MARY ANN TAYLOR

Omar, West Virginia

"She will live in campus memory for her unfailing good will and her faithful and effective leadership. Every enterprise committed to her hand was carefully planned and efficiently executed. In acknowledgment of her gentleness and strength in her campus life, and in anticipation of her future service, the Algernon Sydney Sullivan medallion is awarded to Mary Ann Taylor."

MARGARET NEEL QUERY

Russell Scholar

The Margarett Kable Russell Scholar is the recipient of an award established jointly in 1953 by the Board of Trustees and the Alumnae Association in honor of the late Mrs. Russell, a trustee and an alumna of the college. It is awarded to an upperclassman on the basis of academic attainment, high character and quality of life, and service on the campus. It carries a monetary award and certain academic privileges.

The choice of a student for this honor is made by election of the faculty. Nominations are prepared by a committee of faculty members and representatives of the Alumnae Association, and two student members. A student's qualifications for this honor will ordinarily be considered at the end of her junior year. No student will be eligible for reappointment.

Our yearbook, the BLUESTOCKING, which derives its name from the eighteenth century society that was known as the Bluestocking Club, is published by the Junior Class. In addition to the staff members from the Junior Class, a Sophomore and a Freshman representative are chosen from their respective classes.

The aim and purpose of our yearbook is to culminate the events of the school year through pictures, organizations, activities, and classes. It is hoped that in each section of the BLUESTOCKING everyone will find a pleasant memory.

To Miss Fannie Strauss, our advisor and sponsor, we would like to extend our deep appreciation for her tremendous part in helping us to make the BLUESTOCKING possible.

In conclusion, we, the staff of the BLUESTOCKING and the Junior Class, present this 1954-1955 yearbook to you, the students and faculty of Mary Baldwin, in the hope that it will provide for you some pleasure particularly in those years when Mary Baldwin is no longer an actuality but a prevalent memory.

The BLUESTOCKING holds membership in the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press.

The staff of Campus Comments in this, its thirtieth year, has tried, in addition to giving a good coverage of campus news, to portray and interpret news of interest to students all over the world. This has been made possible largely through the National Student Association and a large exchange program.

We have tried to raise the journalistic level of the newspaper, but foremost we have aimed at publishing a newspaper of vital interest to the student body. We have tried to create, interpret, reflect, and guide student interest and views. We feel that this is the important side of journalism for a weekly newspaper. As a source of news alone for a school of this size, a weekly newspaper is of little use.

We gratefully acknowledge the aid rendered us by Mr. Richard D. Hamilton and Miss Mary Moore Pancake, faculty advisors.

Campus Comments is a member of Intercollegiate Press, Associated Collegiate Press, and Virginia Intercollegiate Press Associations.

The purpose of the Miscellany is to give an outlet to the literary creations and the artistic work of the students. Each member of the staff has an opportunity to work on editing, copy-reading, layout, and to experience the satisfaction of seeing her work come to life.

This is the students' magazine and caters to the tastes and interests of the school. It tries to publish material of lasting interest. This has been one of its goals since the first appearance of the magazine in 1899.

Mrs. Collins and Miss Mims are the advisors and consultants for the Miscellany.

The Miscellany is a member of the Virginia Intercollegiate Press Association and the Associated Collegiate Press.

The purpose is to plan and carry out the best way of handling the finances and methods of obtaining advertisements for the publications, and, whenever possible, to have a representative from Mary Baldwin attend the collegiate press conferences. Eleanor Harwell is Chairman and Tobie Cadle is Treasurer.

The Recreation Association

PAIGE SMITH
President

The purpose of the Mary Baldwin Recreation Association reads from the constitution as follows:—

"The purpose of this Association shall be to develop interest and participation in a diversified program of recreational activities, to promote a spirit of good sportsmanship, and to cultivate a spirit of cooperation and fellowship, within campus life."

If a girl makes use of the diversified athletic program offered, she will find this purpose to be fulfilled for her. Almost all major and minor sports are offered and those who have never played are taught in order that they may improve the calibre of their playing and that they may also find enjoyment in sports.

Sportsmanship seems to be synonymous with athletics. Co-operation and consideration for others are essential in both team and individual sports and nothing is more frowned upon in games than an exhibition of poor sportsmanship, a poor loser or winner or an unnecessarily rough player.

In order that the Recreation Association may be comprised only of active or interested members, it is required that each girl participate in ten hours each semester of athletic activity and uphold the purpose of the Association at all times.

The Irish Clan

JOANNE CROUCH
Leader

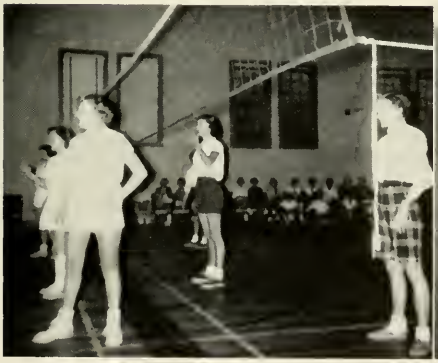
The Irish Clan Council consists of Joanne Crouch, leader, Jean Breeden, publicity manager and the Irish sports leaders. The publicity manager makes posters for games and generally helps to promote enthusiasm. The Clan Council works on needs of the clan and in co-ordination with the R. A. Council.

The Irish Clan entertained the Scotch Clan, faculty and staff with a party on St. Patrick's Day.

The Scotch Clan

The Scotch Clan Council is composed of the Scotch Captain—Dottie Hayden, the publicity manager—Judy Gallup, and the sports leaders. As Clan Captain, Dottie is in charge of co-ordinating the various activities of the clan and helping to maintain interest in the Recreation Association. The publicity manager is in charge of making posters and also of arranging skits. Each member of the clan is required to have ten recreational hours per semester. This is done in an effort to have more students take part in the different recreational activities offered on the campus.

DOTTIE HAYDEN
Leader



Hockey

SHANNON GREENE
Irish Leader

PAT BOWIE
Scotch Leader

Field hockey at Mary Baldwin is a popular sport in the fall. The Irish and Scotch leaders selected a team for their respective clans. The Irish hockey team was the winner of the contest, two games out of three. Joanne Crouch was chosen during the season to represent Mary Baldwin at the Blue Ridge Hockey Tournament at Sweetbriar College.

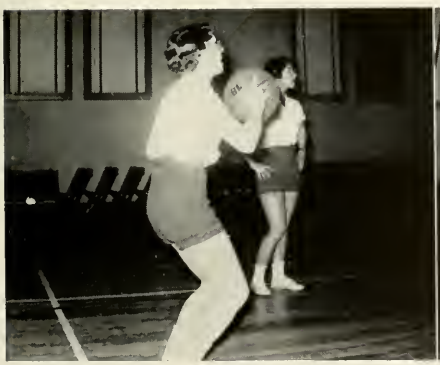
Basketball

NANCY LEEPER
Irish Leader

ELLEN GIBSON
Scotch Leader

Basketball practice began immediately after the Christmas Holidays. After a sufficient number of practices, each clan was divided into two teams which participated in a series of games. Each team played a two-out-of-three game series, and received a certain number of points for each game won.

Elected as captains were Nancy Leeper for the Irish, and Ellen Gibson for the Scotch. These girls were responsible for choosing and coaching the teams.



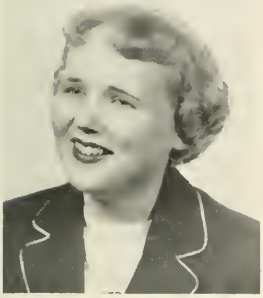
Tennis

ALICE JONES
Irish Leader

JUNE MORROW
Scotch Leader

Among other sports at Mary Baldwin, tennis plays an active part in the extracurricular life of the students. The matches are played on a team basis. In the fall Emily Baker won the honors in singles for the Scotch. The doubles tournament was played in the spring.

Volleyball



CHARLOTTE WALKER
Irish Leader

CLAIRE FONTAINE
Scotch Leader

Volleyball season was started with preliminary practices of both clans, after which each clan was divided into two teams. The Irish were led by Charlotte Walker, while the Scotch's captain was Claire Fontaine. Each team played three games. At the end of the season eight students from both clans played the faculty.

Recreational Sports

PAULA BRANCH
Irish Leader

PATTY PARKE
Scotch Leader

The Recreational Sports have become increasingly more important in our athletic program.

A new feature initiated this year was a "Rec of the Week" contest which occurred during exam week. The object of this contest was to create more interest in table tennis, pool, and bowling. The person who achieved the most hours in these recreational sports was named the winner. Ellen Gibson was the recipient of the prize.

The Dolphins have worked hard this year to put on a good water pageant. At the beginning of the year work was concentrated on learning new stunts. As the year progressed the students were perfected and work on the pageant got under way.

Dance Group

The Modern Dance Group, under the direction of Miss Carol Cleveland, is composed of students who are particularly adept and interested in Modern Dance. The activities for the year include participating in the annual Dance Festival at Greensboro, N. C., performing for chapel programs and high school weekends, presenting the Commencement Pageant, and assisting Miss Cleveland with the other classes.

The three main traits necessary in an usher or marshal are poise, courtesy, and attractiveness.

Holding a position such as this is an honor, but also hard work. At many important events, such as the King Series, school plays, serious programs of campus organizations, and commencement week-end, these girls always do their best to please the students and guests of the college by seating them and aiding in many other small ways to see that the function runs smoothly.

The Chief Marshal is elected by the student body from the rising junior or senior class. The other marshals are chosen by their respective classes and they, in turn, choose the ushers from the other classes.

Architect's drawing of the New Dormitory.

The opening of the new dormitory will be an important step in the growth of Mary Baldwin, and will be ready for occupancy by the first of August, 1955. The dormitory will be equipped with lounges, kitchen facilities, laundry facilities, a suite of rooms for guests, and a suite for a housemother. A few of the rooms will have built-in furniture. Probably the members of the class of 1955 visiting on the campus next year will be the first guests in the dormitory.

LYNCHBURG, VIRGINIA

Sometimes it is the nature of a craft to create an unbreakable tie between itself and the worker in that field, a heart attachment equal to lifetime devotion. One familiar example is PRINTING. Once editor, once compositor, or pressman catches the spirit of the shop, the spell is seldom broken. Like the odor of a camp fire, or a whiff of salt air, the beloved tang of printer's ink, symbolical of a great profession, gets into your heart and soul. School Annuals, Magazines, Newspapers and Special Printing, all smack of it. It is an invisible link that binds all intelligence together. It is the stimulus for creation in business or romance. This craftsmanship, this devotion to service and alertness to business needs, has nourished and developed an enormous industrial vitality, and whichever way the course of the future runs, the printer will always find himself able to adapt his helpfulness to new opportunity.

Years of experience have taught us! Printing Pays Us Only When It Pays You!
